

Curt Landry Ministries Creative Media Producer/Director

Bringing to life the mission of Curt Landry Ministries through visionary storytelling

Full-Time / On-Site Position - Fairland, OK / Accepting Resumes and Inquiries

The Opportunity

The mission at Curt Landry Ministries (CLM) is to be a bridge of unity and restoration between Israel and the Church. We believe in empowering individuals and families through the understanding of the Jewish roots of the faith—inviting hearts back to the Father’s covenant table.

Just as Jesus used parables to teach and reach hearts, our desire is to use today’s advanced media technology, through audio and video storytelling, in order to connect and engage. Therefore, we firmly believe that the power of today’s multimedia technology is the supply line that connects and engages hearts and families with the message of the gospel and of the One New Man.

Our desire is to serve as a conduit of resources that will reach and restore lives, building individuals and families with strong, deep-rooted legacies for generations to come. Through the use of various digital and social platforms, together with the use of creative videography and storytelling, our vision is to span the globe through education, enrichment, and discipleship of our current audience, and to spark and ignite the interest and desire of an entirely new and unreached audience.

The Role

The CLM Creative Media Producer/Director leadership position is a “Chief Storyteller,” communicating Kingdom impact through live production, studio work, and enhanced storytelling. They must be self-motivated and self-disciplined in areas of time management, budget-conscious project management, and building a team to achieve the goals of CLM set forth by leadership. We are looking for someone who is creative and able to shoot, edit, and share our message, and who also understands data-driven marketing and how to measure ROI.

This person will serve in a leadership capacity, overseeing the wide dissemination of mission-driven ministry content. They will help determine story-telling direction, oversee content creation, and create according to plan.

- Ability to lead and manage a team
- Coordinate production meetings with leadership and staff
- Detailed project management
- Create and develop content consistent with the voice and tone of the ministry

In addition, the CLM Creative Media Producer/Director should have working knowledge and the ability to train staff and volunteers in the following:

- Multiple forms of media, including all social media platforms, YouTube, etc.
- The use of Planning Center, scheduling staff, contractors, and volunteers
- Working knowledge of various audio, video, lighting, and special effects

The Right-Fit

We need a team member who is a visionary and self-starter, and who can also take direction and critique. We are looking for a team player who...

- Loves Jesus—Is continually growing in their relationship with Jesus and has a passion for caring for and helping people grow closer to Him
- Builder + Leader—Is energized by an opportunity to shape and build a thriving creative ministry
- Team Player—Thrives in a collaborative environment and has a ‘we,’ not ‘me’ ministry mindset and approach
- Creative Visual Storyteller—Has a passion for using creative stories and media to communicate the Father’s heart
- Flexible—Is able to work hard and effortlessly embrace change in a fast-paced culture
- Organized—Is gifted at providing systems, structure, and administration to help power the media ministry in a healthy and sustainable way

The Details

- Competitive pay scale based on skill and experience
- Benefits package
- This position is a full-time on-site position in Fairland, OK. Applicants must be willing to relocate to the area to serve on-site
- Immediate opening, ideal candidate actively in place by November 2021
